

National Midwifery Exam Funding – Criteria for Student Midwives

Midwives of the Waikato Region recognise the financial pressures of student life and early first year practice and are keen to support students by helping fund the costs of sitting the National Midwifery Examination.

Requirements for Funding

- Be a current financial member of Waikato Region of NZ College of Midwives
- Have attended a minimum of six regional meetings over the three years of study, with three of these meetings within the last year (applicant is to provide proof of attendance ie. a scanned copy of clinical hours book);
- The fee for the National Midwifery Examination must be paid in advance by the student; once received, a copy of receipt for payment is to be submitted to the Secretary.

What Next?

If you feel you are eligible and wish to apply for funding:

- Complete an Application for National Exam Funding
- Include evidence of meeting attendance (ie. scanned copy of clinical hours book)
- Submit a copy of receipt for payment to the Secretary once received from Midwifery Council (you may submit your application while awaiting this receipt)
- Submit your application to the Secretary via email:
secretarywaikatonzcom@gmail.com

Disclaimer - Please note:

- Funding is at the discretion of the NZCOM Waikato Committee
- All grants will be subject to the availability of sufficient regional funds on the advice of the Treasurer.
- The current fee to sit National Exam is $200 (2019). Funding caps may apply.
- The NZ College of Midwives Waikato Committee reserve the right to agree on a grant amount.
- Funding must be repaid in full should any funding requirements not be met.
